ARMOR 0-0398

Paterson, 4-23-1959.

Washington D.C.

Dear Sir,

This is to acknowledge receipt of your letter dated April 6th 1959 with enclosure of a money order for a amount of $50.

I am very sorry that I could not send a earlier acknowledgement letter to you.

It happened so that I had for few days as a guest Brigadier-General Fawaz Maher of Jordan, and soon after his departure, arrived H.M. King Hussein and his party in New York city and during their stay in New York City, I was always with them. This was reason for my delay.

I am very happy that H.M. King and his party were very happy in USA. and they left this country with very high hopes for future.

Sincerely yours

Ishmir Dogramaci
